

HITLER REVISES PLAN FOR SPRING OFFENSE

AUSTRALIANS MOBILIZING AGAINST JAPS

Government Will Have the Final Word On Choice Of Jobs

REGISTERS EVERY PERSON UP TO 65

Men From 18 to 50 Subject To Call For Work In Labor Battalions

SYDNEY, Australia (Wide World)—Australia, threatened with imminent Japanese invasion, is prepared to require any citizen to do any job for which the government considers him—or her—suitable in a total mobilization of her greatly-increased economic power but comparatively meager manpower.

Already every man and woman up to the age of 65 has been ordered to register, and any attempt to bargain for workers' services has been blocked effectively by pegging wages.

Subject To "Labor Army"
In addition, all men between the ages of 18 and 60 are subject to call for service in labor battalions. Here they will be under military control, will receive military pay, and will be sent wherever they are needed for work on strategic projects.

The national manpower register will be the only channel through which either private industry or government agencies will be able to engage workers. The government will have the final word on whether a man should go into the home army, into government work or private industry.

Some 200,000 Australians—of a total population of 7,000,000—now are estimated to be engaged directly or indirectly in war production.

Minimum base pay in the major industries in Australia's metropolitan areas—where many non-essential industries already have been closed down to make the workers available for munitions and other vital plants—is $17.40 a week.

The average soldier's pay, which will be the standard for the labor battalions, is $1.60 a day, of which 20 cents is deferred for payment after the war.

Service abroad in the armed forces remains voluntary. But men liable to militia duty probably will be given their choice of going into the army or joining the labor corps.

Respond To Sacrifices
In the face of a constant and increasing call for sacrifices, the Australian people are responding readily. Prime Minister John Curtin's war cabinet already has approved in principle the ban of all public holidays until June 30, with the exception of Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

This move first was introduced last Christmas, and it is felt it must be continued while the need for munitions and other war materials continues to be so urgent. Under the ban the workers will lose five holidays—Labor day, also called "Eight-Hour" day; Easter Tuesday, Anzac day, and the King's birthday.

Taxation already is heavy, yet there is general belief it has by no means reached its peak.

So far there has been no actual

JAPS BAYONET 50 PRISONERS

Women Raped and Murdered at Hong Kong, Eden Tells House

LONDON, March 10.—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden charged in the house of commons today that the Japanese army in Hong Kong had been guilty of wholesale atrocities in the occupied crown colony and declared that the Japanese emperor and government and "the whole Japanese people" were to be blamed.

Fifty British officers and men were bound hand and foot and then bayoneted to death following the capture of Hong Kong; women, both European and Asiatic, were raped and murdered, and one whole Chinese district was declared a brothel without exception for the status of any of the inhabitants, Eden declared.

Claim Confirmation
These happenings, previously reported to the government, were not made public until it had confirmation from reliable eyewitnesses recently escaped from the colony, Eden said.

"Their testimony established the fact that the Japanese army at Hong Kong perpetrated against their helpless military prisoners and civil population without distinction of race or color the same kind of barbarities which aroused

TAKE SOUNDINGS ON CUT-OFF ROUTE

State highway department engineers took soundings today on a swampy area near the Depot rd. in connection with plans for the proposed "cut-off" highway south of the city.

The highway department did some grading on the job a year ago, but the project is still in the semi-active stage.

Representatives of the division highway department office at New Philadelphia will come to Salem some time this week to conduct a survey of downtown E. State st., which is up for resurfacing as a joint city and state project. According to preliminary plans, the resurfacing will cost the city only $1,000, the major portion of the expense being borne by the state.

Millions Of Women To Do Aprons For War Plant Duties

Homeworkers Will Go Into Munitions Factories As War Industries Continue to Expand

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—An official war inventory of the nation's human resources declared today that millions of women would have to be shifted from housework to munitions factories in the expansion of war industries.

The survey was made by the bureau of census. It contained no specific mention of proposals that American women be drafted into factories as women are in England, but asserted:

"The maximum movement into the male labor force can hardly exceed 2,000,000 men. A larger expansion of the total labor supply evidently can be achieved only by drawing millions of women into the labor force."

The report said that 15,600,000 housewives between 18 and 44 years old represented the principal reserve from which additional war labor might be drawn.

INDIANS MAY GET STATUS OF DOMINION

Action Regarded In British Circles As Virtual Certainty

CHURCHILL PLANS STATEMENT SOON

Cabinet Debates Problem As Jap Army Beats On Door of Empire

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 10.—Prime Minister Churchill will make a statement on the government's India policy at the next sitting of the house of commons, Sir Stafford Cripps, lord privy seal, told the house today.

(This statement may come tomorrow, since commons usually meets on Wednesday.)

The British cabinet debated the complex problem at two sessions Saturday and yesterday.

Dominion Status Seen
Dominion status for India as the price for her millions' war support for Britain was regarded in British circles today as a virtual certainty and the weight of cabinet influence apparently was veering toward an offer which would be put into force promptly.

With the mailed fist of the Japanese army beating on the door of the empire's treasure chamber and its people's attitude tepid toward Britain because of unfulfilled aspirations for freedom, the cabinet debated the measure of Indian independence Saturday and yesterday. Informed sources said the snag was on the timing of dominion status—whether to grant it now or promise it at a deferred date.

Sir Stafford Cripps was said to be leading the fight for an immediate grant to India of the same rank in the commonwealth as Canada and the other dominions. Prime Minister Churchill, formerly an advocate of strong British rule in India, was believed to be swinging toward the same opinion, it was reported.

Three Plans Listed
Essentially, there are three plans for India believed to be before the cabinet:

1. A flat offer of post-war dominion status.
 2. A gradual grant of dominion status during the war.
 3. An offer of immediate dominion status.
- Indians here have declared that the only plan acceptable to their countrymen would be the third—and that it would represent the minimum of India's demands. Others say that even immediate dominion status would be unsatisfactory, that Indians have reached a point where they would accept nothing but a "completely independent nation."

CLEVELAND STAR SIGNS CONTRACT

CLEVELAND, March 10.—Jeff Heath, the Cleveland Indians' leading hitter last season, today ended his holdout.

Heath came to terms with President Alva Bradley after several hours of conferring. Baseball fans speculated that the Port Orchard (Wash.) outfielder probably got a raise from his estimated 1941 salary of $12,000—but not the 50 per cent hike he had asked. The club declined to name the compromise figure.

Heath will leave tonight for the Tribe's Clearwater (Fla.) training camp. His capitation leaves only Gerald Walker a tribe holdout.

SCRAP CAMPAIGN DATES ARE LISTED

A tentative schedule for collection of scrap metal in Columbiana county was announced today by County Agent Floyd Lower, chairman of the county rural scrap campaign committee.

The schedule includes Knox township, which began this week and the following townships to start on Monday, March 16:

Yellow Creek, West Side of Middleton, Perry, Butler, Center, Salem, Fairfield, Unity.

Madison will begin on March 18 and Franklin will begin on March 23. The schedule for the remaining townships will be announced later, but most of them will begin on March 23.

Scrap metal, other than tin cans, will be collected at the farms by township and county trucks in the "scrap for cash" campaign for Columbiana county. The scrap metal will be trucked to the yards of scrap dealers who will sort it and prepare it for the steel mills.

U.S. Freezes Pork Prices At Last Week's Top Levels

Henderson Moves To Hold Down Cost of Living; Action Becomes Effective On March 23

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The government temporarily froze wholesale prices of 90 per cent of the nation's pork products, including ham and bacon, today at the highest levels prevailing between March 3 and March 7.

The ceiling, effective March 23, applies to dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts, and Price Administrator Leon Henderson declared it was expected to "help importantly in holding down the cost of living."

Last year, consumers spent more than $2,000,000,000 for pork and other hog products.

Neither farmers nor retail outlets are covered directly by the emergency price schedule but Henderson asserted both would feel its effects. When prices are fixed on dressed hogs or pork cuts, prices which the packer may pay for farmers' hogs automatically are limited.

Will Watch Retail Prices
"Pork prices to the retailer are fixed under the regulation," Henderson continued. "OPA will step into the retail picture immediately, should present retail price margins increase to reflect changes in replacement costs, thus adding to the consumer's burden unduly."

The OPA said that, with top prices of $13.75 a hundred pounds currently prevailing for hogs in Chicago, prices received by farmers exceed 110 per cent of parity. The

TWO SAFETY UNITS TO BE ORGANIZED

Auxiliaries to Fire, Police Departments Planned In City

Initial steps toward organizing auxiliary fire and police departments in Salem will be taken with the registration of volunteers Friday and Saturday at the fire station in city hall.

Plans for effecting the organization of the defense units to bolster the regular departments, were made at a meeting last night.

Men 18 years and up will be enrolled as auxiliary fire fighters, Chief Vincent L. Malloy said.

Applicants for the police auxiliary must be at least 21 years old, Chief Ralph N. Stoffer explained.

Malloy pointed out that volunteer firemen under 21 must have their parents' approval to join.

The hours of registration Friday and Saturday will be from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m. Members of the committee on public protection of the Salem defense council will serve as registrars.

A large number of men are expected to register for both auxiliary fire and police duty. The registration will be the first step in getting the defense groups organized.

Those volunteering for the fire department may sign as firemen or fire watchers. Fire wardens are to be selected.

BRITAIN SEES U.S. EXPANSION IN NAVY MOVES

Action to Counter Possible Change of Fleets Possible

ICE THAWING OUT ON RED-NAZI FRONT

Reds, On Various Fronts, Still Driving Against Yielding Germans

(By Associated Press)
British naval circles, commenting on the assignment of Admiral Harold R. Stark to London as commander of American warships in European waters, speculated today that the United States might be planning to increase its naval strength across the Atlantic.

These quarters declared it was obvious that an officer of Admiral Stark's high rank would not be sent to London unless some new development of naval importance were in the offing.

May Counter Shift in Fleets
Other observers saw the possibility that powerful units of America's rapidly expanding navy might be sent abroad to counter any shift in the European naval balance through absorption of French warships into the German fleet, such reinforcements might also be intended for a British counter-invasion of the continent to establish a "second front" against Germany, as repeatedly urged by Russia.

On the Soviet front, Russia's winter-frozen battlefronts were reported slowly thawing out with the approach of spring, but mud-clogged communications made it doubtful whether Adolf Hitler could launch his heralded offensive before the end of April or May.

A Swedish correspondent in Berlin wrote that the thaws were giving the Germans "a foretaste of what it will be like when all the great snows which have massed during the severest winter in nearly 100 years begin to melt."

Strong new Red army reinforcements were reported moving into the Staraya Russa sector, as survivors of the trapped Nazi 16th army still tried to escape.

Front-line dispatches said the Russians were driving with new fury against German siege lines around Leningrad and reported that heavy Soviet attacks were battering German fortifications between Volkov and Lake Ladoga which guard the flank of the Nazi siege forces east and south of the old Czarist capital.

TREASURER MAILS REAL ESTATE BILLS

Real estate tax statements covering the first half of 1941 were placed in the mails yesterday by Columbiana County Treasurer Owen H. Dawson and his office aides.

The collection period, which is later than usual, will close April 10. Penalties will be assessed after the deadline, Dawson pointed out. Property owners, who, for some reason fail to receive a tax statement are urged to contact the treasurer's office at the Lisbon courthouse not later than March 20.

In all, a total of 33,000 tax statements, on 50,000 land parcels, were mailed.

Dawson recommended that persons could save time, money and the wear on tires if they would mail their returns to his office. He asked that taxpayers refrain from sending cash, using either a check or money order.

Income Tax Payers, Refusing Deductions, Help War Effort

But North Dakota Woman Wins $5 Deduction for Dress She Lost In 80-Mile Windstorm

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Treasury officials said today hundreds of persons who filed income tax returns in the last few days refused to take deductions because they wanted to pay more taxes to help win the war.

Officially, however, the treasury approves of everyone taking his legal deductions, since they were devised in the first place to equalize the tax burden.

Many citizens send money when their returns show that they don't owe any taxes. A $20 contribution arrived in Seattle along with a non-taxable return last week from a man living along the Arctic circle in Alaska.

Salt Lake City recently greeted an almost legendary sheepherder who trekked from his mountain home 200 miles through a blizzard to pay not only his 1941, but also his 1939 and 1940 income taxes. He explained that he changed his mind about taxes since he had a son with MacArthur on Bataan.

In contrast to those who refuse to take deductions, some still claim them wrongfully.

The collector at Omaha wrote in yesterday to report that a man there had to be argued out of claiming "depreciation" on his wooden leg. An Ohioan was told by another collector he couldn't deduct the price of his false teeth unless he could prove they were a "necessary and ordinary business expense."

But the North Dakota collector recently approved a $5 deduction by a woman who lost her dress in an 80-mile-an-hour windstorm.

However, in New York, one man paid a $30,000 tax with his return, from which he omitted deliberately customary deductions which would have cut his tax by $700.

CALLS PARLEY ON ORIENT WAR

President Talks with King, New Naval Chief, and Admiral Hart

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A conference on naval strategy in the Pacific was scheduled by President Roosevelt today with Admiral E. J. King, the newly designated supreme commander of naval operations, and Rear Admiral Thomas C. Hart, just returned from the southwest Pacific area.

Hart served as naval chief for the United Nations in the southwest Pacific until he asked to be relieved several weeks ago because of poor health.

Hart conferred with Secretary of Navy Knox before going to the White House.

King, who was already commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet, took over the duties heretofore entrusted to Admiral Harold R. Stark as chief of naval operations.

This consolidation of authority—a possible hint of further streamlining in the navy's organization—gave King control not only of combat activities but also of the general planning and fleet maintenance, formerly the province of the chief of naval operations.

Stark Gets New Job

Secretary of Navy Knox announced the change in a formal statement last night which disclosed the assignment of Admiral Stark to a newly created post of "Commander, U. S. Naval Forces operating in European waters."

The navy changes followed closely the army's reorganization of its general staff into a smaller, younger group, but it remained to be seen whether the two moves would quiet congressional agitation for a greater unification in the direction of the nation's war effort.

The army reorganization, which became effective yesterday, reduced

LENINGRAD TO ROSTOV DRIVE IS INDICATED

Germans Reported to Fear Soviet Smash Through Baltic States

ABANDON PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN IN SOUTH

London Hears Nazis Take 18-Year-Old Youths From Factories

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, March 10.—Adolf Hitler was reported digging deep into his reserves of manpower today and moving up his forces for a gigantic spring offensive from Leningrad to Rostov to smash Russia and end a growing threat to Germany's prem.

The Germans were said to fear that if anything went wrong around Leningrad the Russians might smash right through the Baltic states into Germany.

Reliable sources said confidential advisers "almost certainly accurate" indicate the Germans had abandoned earlier plans for a defensive war in the north and a sharp offensive in the south.

Instead, they said, Hitler appears to be planning a general attack because of the Red army's unexpected successes in the Staraya Russa area and a weakening of the Finns.

The steel ring the Russians had thrown around the trapped 16th German army at Staraya Russa was contracting, Moscow dispatches said. A German prisoner was quoted as saying only 60,000 to 70,000 Germans remained in the trap of the original number estimated at 90,000. The Germans were said to be abandoning settlements within the encirclement, leaving only suicide squads.

London sources said Hitler was pouring all reserves into the eastern front, even stripping factories of 18-year-old youths and older men.

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts), March 10.—German troops repulsed a Russian attack 20 miles west of Leningrad near Granienbaum, opposite the great Kornstadt naval base, it was announced at noon today.

The zone of fighting was the farthest west of Leningrad reported by either side since the Russian counter-offensive started.

The Germans said they "wrought havoc" on Soviet transport columns on the ice.

WHITE WAR ON AMERICA

American blood has been shed. There is more action on the way. But so far this country has been fighting a white war.

The phrase was coined abroad in 1939. It is a substitute for another phrase, war of nerves, and describes a strategy of terror based on uncertainty. The Germans have made a sort of pseudo-science of this.

The fundamental thing is to keep the opposition guessing. The United States, for instance, doesn't know what to expect. It must try to be prepared for any eventuality. There is no way of knowing how strong or how active the Nazi fifth columnists will be. Where Germany will strike next is unknown, as is also the extent of collaboration between Germany and Japan.

Purpose of the white war is to throw this country off balance and reduce its efficiency, the thing that happened in France. But the same tactics were used against the British, without success. A white war cannot succeed unless its victims oblige it by losing their heads and their confidence simultaneously. To the extent of their ability, which is not nearly so great as success has made it appear, the Nazis will go to work on American nerves.

They will fail. For generations, American nerves have been worked on by experts. They have developed an immunity to the kind of nervousness the Germans hope to induce. Their answer will be more planes, more tanks, more guns, more ships, more shells. They will have some bad moments, no doubts, but none so bad as the moments a few men in Germany are having, as the awful realization sinks in that once more out of their profound ignorance and arrogance they made the fatal mistake of underestimating the United States—and that World War II must be lost as the result.

WHY?

Union labor's misgivings about the effect of war on its ultimate welfare should be sharpened by rulings like the office of production management's notice to the army quartermaster department on uniforms. These must be made by manufacturers of men's clothing and cannot be produced by ladies' garment makers, though the latter have suitable facilities, also.

There may be the best reason imaginable for this ruling, but the reason that comes to mind is that a labor leader, Sidney Hillman, who was joint head of office of production management with William S. Knudsen, also is president of Amalgamated Clothing Workers' union, which controls the manufacture of men's clothing. Another labor leader, David Dubinsky, is president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, which controls manufacture of women's clothing.

When labor leaders quit doing so many things that automatically prompt the question, "Why?" and start doing more things that inspire the exclamation, "Atta baby!" union labor's misgivings about its wartime will disappear.

PLANES AND FACE IN THE FAR EAST

Worse than even the loss of territory for the western powers is their loss of face in the orient. In due course of time, they may reestablish territorial control after a fashion, but to regain the prestige they have kicked away with their ineptitude will take generations of patient rebuilding.

A handful of Americans have done amazing things with planes, a branch in which occidental superiority over the Japanese had been taken for granted. Aside from their deeds, however, the Japanese have continuously held the upper hand; their conquests have been speeded up by their ability to drive the opposition out of the air. The latest experience in Java, where airplane strength again was too little and too late, is typical.

The United Nations' opposition now falls back to the continent of Australia, which will be a stronghold only to the extent that the Japanese can be kept from controlling the air. Millions of Asiatics who resent Japan's plan to rule them as part of an empire have only one hope left—the potential aerial strength of the United States.

COL. BLIMP AND MAHATMA GANDHI

India is Mahatma Gandhi in a sheet, and British colonial administration is the caricature of Col. Blimp. There is a job here for the public relation department. Actually, India may be—probably is—the solid figure of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, and the British are Gen. Wavell. But it's beside the point now.

The Col. Blimps have had their way long enough to bring Indian affairs to a crisis that could have been averted—a crisis in which it is entirely possible the leaders of a third of a billion human beings may find no reason to think kindly of Great Britain.

The alternative to British domination of India is Japanese domination. There would be no Mahatma Gandhi, no Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, no claims and counter-claims of dominion status for India under Japan. But if India's leaders should cut off their noses to spite their faces, they would not be alone to blame.

Guiltily, also, would be the Britons who failed to see that one day there would be need for something in India besides the obedience of the population, which now stands in imminent danger of being just as obedient to orders from another government. The colonel and the mahatma are perilously close to the end of their brisk interlude in history.

ALTHOUGH this may be a particularly active day, with many things of importance moving at high tempo, yet there are all sorts of difficulties, delays, obstructions, disturbances or distresses to cope with. The impulses and energies may be ready to attack such problems but the mind may be confused or perplexed or depressed.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for an active and seemingly productive year, with the energies, impulses and creative abilities ready to inaugurate new or important projects of promising scope. But there may arise obstructions, delays, fears, and many difficulties which depress and lower the initiative and purposes.

A child born on this day should have much constructive ability, energy and ambition but may be subject to depressions, obstacles and mental gloom which may undermine their purpose and incite enmity from elders.

From what reports say—and there is no reason for distrust—Washington, D. C., has a terrific mess of people bulging her boundaries. Everybody there is in the government payroll. But the difficulty is to each the job in time to hear the quitting whistle blow.

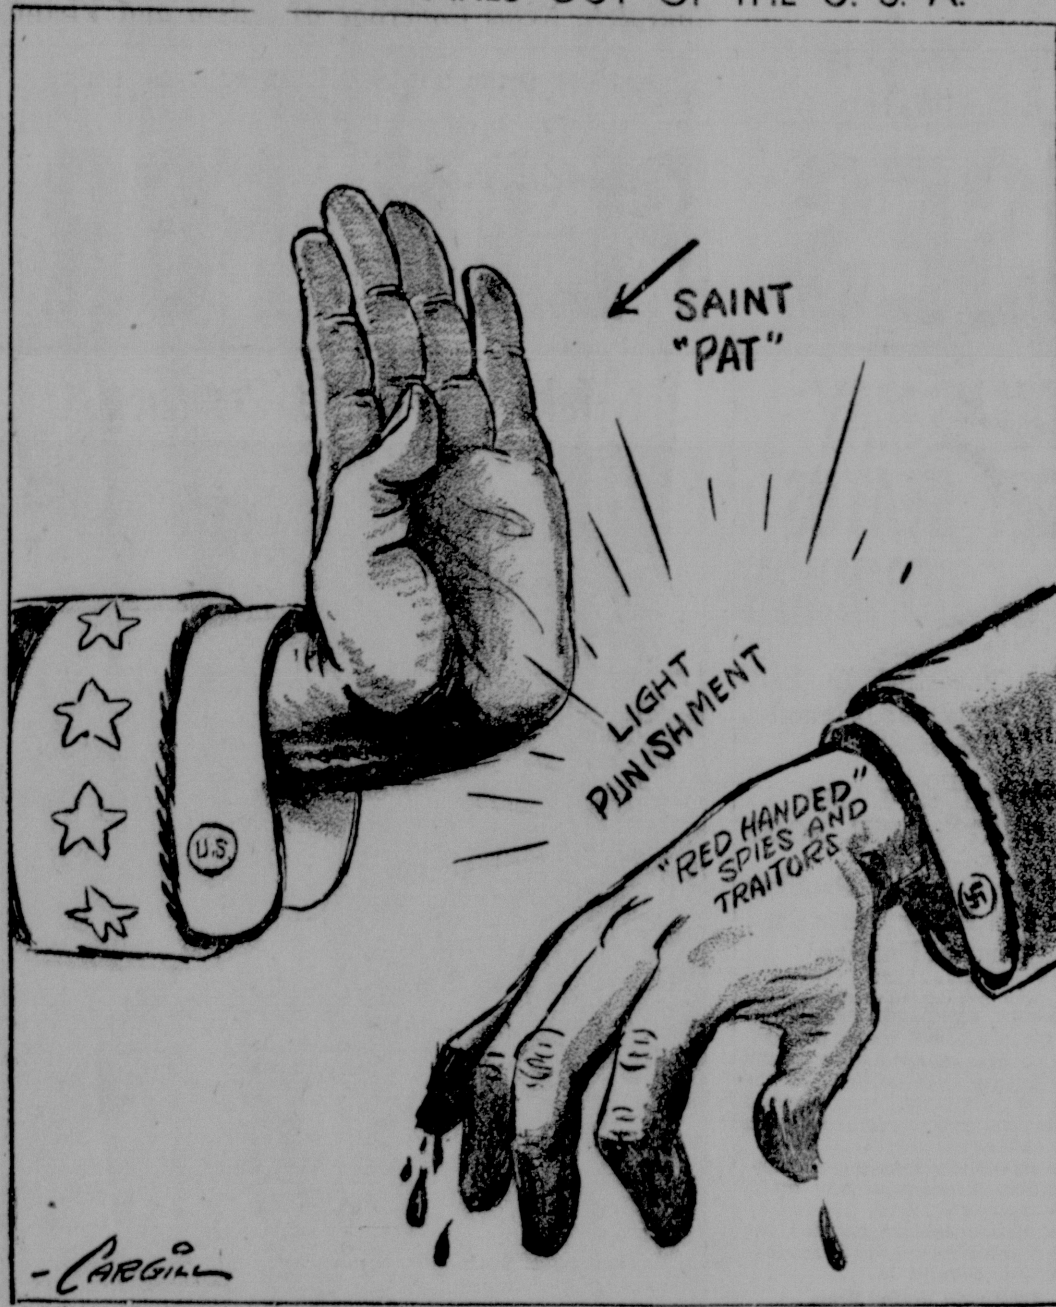

Chief of Staff, General Marshall, is quoted as saying: "The time has come to attack the enemy and not be content to defend." This sounds like good old American doctrine; it is good common sense, if you can persuade the Washingtonians to believe it.

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

AMONG chronic, reflex headaches, those that originate in the eyes are among the most frequent and the easiest to relieve.

The eyes are used from twelve to fifteen hours every day. Therefore irrespective of the location of the headache or its severity, the eyes should be examined by a competent oculist in every case of chronic or recurrent headache.

Very often the reason that headache of eye origin is not traced to its source is due to the dislike that most people have of wearing glasses. They feel that it may be necessary to wear glasses and they would rather suffer with the headache than tell the family physician important facts that might result in glasses being recommended.

Headaches due to eye disturbances usually affect both sides of the head. However, a sufficient number of them are one-sided, resembling in this migraine, so that one-sided headaches cannot be dismissed as not being due to eye disease.

Due To Eye Strain

While most headaches are due to eye strain, the cause of this strain should be determined and the eyes fitted with glasses to relieve any existing condition which might be causing this strain.

A number of inflammatory diseases of the eye, such as iritis and glaucoma, manifest themselves first by headache alone. An extremely important warning is that in any person over the age of forty who has a sudden headache, severe, stabbing and boring in character, radiating deeply through the orbit over the side of the head and down the neck and the shoulder, should have medical consultation immediately. It suggests acute glaucoma, one of the most serious of all eye diseases. Fortunately, the severity of the pain demands medical consultation so that these cases are not easily overlooked.

The common eye headache is a dull, heavy feeling rather than a pain, which is likely to come on in the middle of the afternoon and last through the evening. That is, it comes on at the end of a period of eye usage and lasts until the eyes are relieved. Eye headaches very seldom appear in the morning, which makes them different from headaches of sinus origin.

Far-Sightedness

This type of headache may be due to an error of refraction, usually far-sightedness, which may be complicated by astigmatism. The complicated by astigmatism, the strain on the eyes is considerable. The careful oculist will inquire, before treatment is prescribed, as to the mode of living, the occupation, reading ability and the use of light.

Another form of eye strain is due to muscle errors. Many of these are due to improperly fitted glasses—glasses that are not fitted to the face of the patient, tilted lenses, too wide lenses, or frames which are off center. And rarely, eyes which are uneven in position.

It is the mild muscle errors which present the serious problem so far as headaches are concerned. The more severe errors may be insignificant so far as symptoms are concerned.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

G. M. S.:—Is there any harm in taking thyroid gland tablets without the constant care of a physician? I am seventeen and take them just for fun.

Answer: There certainly is a great deal of harm in taking thyroid extract without the constant care of a physician. I do not know what "fun" you get out of, but if I were you, I would stop it.

What do I do?

—to protect against battery failure?

Car batteries have been known to last 10 years with proper care. The three most important things are: 1. Have fluid level checked regularly (every 2 weeks in winter—every week in summer). 2. Watch ammeter to see that battery is charging at normal rate. Keep terminals from corroding. All Sohio stations offer expert battery service. Take advantage of it and keep your battery in tip-top shape.

Failure of the kidneys to function so the flow of urine is normal may mean the kidneys need stimulating by a diuretic. The kidneys contain millions of tiny tubes or filters. So it is easy to see that the kidneys may get tired and they may need help to stimulate them to activity.

TONJON No. 3, a liquid diuretic, prepared from pure ingredients has helped many in the past where the flow of urine is scanty. It is inexpensive and may be obtained at most drug stores.

"HUTCH" OF THE R.A.F. by PETER MUIR

SYNOPSIS
Forced down on a golf course in Kent, England, David "Hutch" Hutchinson, American flyer with the famous "Hornet" squadron of the R. A. F. meets lovely Wendy Bruce. The latter, an ambulance driver on leave, is the daughter of Lord and Lady Harrowsdale, whose estate, "The Downs," is nearby. Just as David finishes repairing an oil leak, he sees three Messerschmitts chasing a single Spitfire. He joins the battle just as the British flyer and one Nazi crash. Hutch downs one of the remaining enemy planes; the other disappears into the clouds. When news comes that "The Downs" that Philip, Wendy's brother, is to take the place of a "Hornet" who crashed nearby, the girl's heart sinks for it was David. The young American had made quite an impression on her. She is overcome with emotion when Philip telephones that David is safe. In the meantime, Hutch has returned to his base, only to learn that his captain and friend, John McCall, was the flyer who had "bought it" an R. A. F. term for dying in combat. In the mess-hall, two of Hutch's buddies, Arthur Stafford and Rusty Ransome, do their best to cheer him up. Rusty, a cut-up, puts a swing record on the phonograph and tells of his conquests when on leave in London.

CHAPTER SEVEN
The phonograph record had run its noisy course and the needle was scraping harshly around the center of the disk. This gave Hutch the reason he had been looking for to have the table. Try as he would, he could not shake off the picture of the girl who had been hurtling to his death. After Mac, he considered Stafford and Ransome, his closest friends, but now it was impossible for him to join in the spirit of their conversation. By dinner time he would be ill right, but for the moment he needed air and to be alone; so he left his friends discoursing earnestly on the merits of bigamy as compared with monogamy.
David walked for a short distance on the road that ran along the full length of the flying field into the Albans. It was a small dirt road flanked by trees from which leaves were beginning to fall in the autumn breezes. There was something about this season that always made him homesick for America and the family plantation in Albemarle county, Virginia, where Nature colored the leaves so brightly, and the corn stalks just the light way so as to make them picturesque, and big golden pumpkins grew along the lovely fences of split alleys, mellowed by years under the open sky. There was something about American autumn that he had never found elsewhere, a mixture of racing air and nostalgic beauty as the trees put on their gayest raiments before undressing in preparation for winter. And the smells of burning leaves and underbrush, the squirrels busy storing up food, the rustle of wind in the drying grasses, and the golden memories of the hunting season were coming. His friends would be shooting down birds while he would be shooting down—No, he must not think of that.
The church tower of St. Albans was plainly visible from where he stood near the southern end of the field. When the squadron had a few hours off duty, which was not often, the pilots gathered in an old barn on the outskirts of the town and drank modestly their half pints of beer. One might think that after seeing so much of each other while on duty they would have preferred to separate when free. But this was not the case. They liked to stick together as much as possible. Perhaps the reason for this was the knowledge that, sooner or later, one by one they would drop out of the group, but this was never spoken of. They were wise young men and refused to dwell on the subject of death or take it seriously.

There was an unwritten law that pilots on duty should not go more than fifty yards beyond the limits of the field; so David turned and walked back in the direction of the hangars. An image of the girl he had met that morning flashed into his mind. What the devil was her name? Wendy. That was it. Wendy Bruce. He repeated the name several times aloud and found it to his liking. Wendy Hutchinson. That didn't sound so bad, either. My, how he could love a girl like that—and marry her, too! But this was no time to think about marriage, even if he knew her better, and more important, if she would have him. He had very definite ideas about leaving young girls widows, was very much against it, and, after all, life in the R. A. F. wasn't the safest thing in the world. He laughed at himself for letting his imagination carry him so far ahead of life. He had only met the girl that morning, and in the most casual way, and now he was already thinking of her not only as his wife but also his widow, feeling rather sorry for her mourning at his grave.
Hutch didn't even know where she lived, and was about to be angry with himself for not having found out, when he remembered that her brother was coming to join them at any hour now. He would make a friend of this fellow. That was easy, as all the members of the squadron were friends, and get a bid sometime when he had leave, to visit the Harrowsdales wherever they lived. That must be somewhere near the golf links on which he had made his forced landing. Wendy had said something about being just an ambulance driver on Malta, Britain's strategic island base in the Mediterranean sea, has been bombed hundreds of times by the Axis since the war began. During February, it has been revealed, Axis warplane attacks killed 116 persons and caused 316 other casualties.

NEW LANDING MADE AT GUINEA TODAY

CANBERRA, Australia, March 10.—The Japanese made a third landing on New Guinea today, enlarging the forces they are marshalling there for what Australians are convinced is an imminent attempt to invade this continent.

The landing was at Finschhafen, where there is a small airfield and a harbor which can accommodate moderate-sized vessels. The strength of the new landing force was not stated.

It is 60 miles east of Lae which, with Salamaua, were the sites of two previous Japanese landings. These and repeated Japanese air bombardments of Port Moresby—another air raid there today was the tenth—have banished any doubt among officials that Australia may be overlooked by the Japanese temporarily in favor of a drive into India.

Australia's air force, strengthened by the return from other fronts of battle-proven fliers to defend their homeland, has been ordered to take the offensive against the gathering enemy strength at the commonwealth's doorstep.

On the Ukraine front, the German-controlled Calais (French) radio said Marshal Semeon Timoshenko was throwing four to six divisions—perhaps 60,000 to 90,000 troops—against Nazi-held Taganrog, on the Sea of Azov, and against the big industrial city of Stalino.

Russian troops were said to have hemmed Kharkov, the Ukraine "Pittsburgh," on three sides, and Soviet dispatches also reported capture of an important point on the Orel front, 230 miles southwest of Moscow, about half way between the Russian capital and Kharkov.

The Russians said a German army trapped at Orel refused to surrender.

Meanwhile, RAF bombers smashed heavily at the German industrial city of Essen, site of the great Krupp munitions works, setting fires "of great size" in a pre-spring bombing offensive.

In addition to attacks upon Germany proper, objectives along the Nazi-occupied French channel coast were raided, British said.

Heavy British guns emplaced along the strait of Dover fired at intervals in the night, apparently at German shipping, and shore watchers saw a flare and heavy explosions lighting up the French coast between Boulogne and Calais, where the RAF has often struck in force.

The Soviet information bureau said 358 German planes had been destroyed, in the air or on the ground, in the week of March 1-7, against Soviet losses of 65.

Red army troops continued their advances yesterday, smashing German resistance and occupying a number of additional villages and towns, the bureau said. It gave no details.

The Gas you save on very cold days can build TANKS, GUNS, PLANES!

By PRUNELLA WOOD

THIS is a fine example of the real smartness which our American manufacturers can put into a readymade dress with a modest price tag. It's no pin money proposition, but an inexpensive "best dress" for church parade, afternoon parties, luncheons and platform appearances, and it should have considerably more than one spring and summer season's wear in it.

Since its trim is white cotton pique, this model is a natural for the cotton accessories which become more and more important and easy to get as priorities nibble away other accessory materials.

Because few implements of war can be fabricated without heat, Natural Gas use by industries in this area has risen week by week. Today, it is the highest on record and still reaching upward to unpredictable heights.

If Victory is to be achieved, guns, tanks, ships, planes, bombs, torpedoes and a hundred other essentials must be provided swiftly. Time is short. Anything that holds up production a single hour defers Victory just so much longer. Natural Gas in this area is a vital war material and must be ready to serve war production plants at all times, without interruption.

To make sure that there will be enough Natural Gas for all purposes—including yours—use Gas wisely. The Gas you save can help to build a plane, tank, ship or gun. Think of it in that way and you'll understand why the War Production Board has asked your cooperation and ours.

Here are some of the ways in which you can help on those very cold days when total demand for Gas is greatest:

1. Cook the low temperature way, saves Gas and vitamins.
2. Roast at lower temperatures and reduce meat shrinkage.
3. Don't overheat rooms and then open windows or doors to cool off.
4. Repair leaky hot water faucets, to save water and Gas.
5. Install storm windows and doors, as well as insulation, to reduce heating costs.

Behind our armed forces . . . the steady flame of Natural Gas

Your Gas Company long ago geared itself to the urgent needs of defense and war. To this end it has drilled new wells, found new ways of storing Gas underground, built new transmission and distribution lines and compressor stations to bring Gas from distant fields.

During 1941, war industries of this district required 126% more Gas than in 1938. Peak delivery in 1941 was at record levels, is certain to go higher in 1942.

Meantime, we are continuing to expand all facilities to keep pace with industry's mounting needs—and to make sure that you in your own home are not deprived of the use of Natural Gas.

Natural Gas is vital to our industries... Use it wisely!

U. S. PUTS CEILING ON PRICE OF PORK

Henderson Moves to Control Living Cost: Action Effective March 23

110 per cent figure is the highest of four levels, in the case of hogs, which limit Henderson's discretionary power to set ceilings on farm products under the Emergency Price Control Act.

Products covered under the new ceiling include regular hams, fresh or frozen; regular hams cured, smoked, boiled or baked; baked or boned skinned hams, picnic hams, shoulders, pork loins, canned or packaged spiced luncheon meat made entirely from pork, Canadian bacon, slab bacon, sliced bacon, fat backs, spare ribs, and canned or packaged spiced ham.

Canned Meats Excluded

Sausages, canned meats, manufactured meats except canned spiced ham and luncheon meat and edible offals, are excluded.

Advances in hog products during recent months, bringing price levels to a 16-year peak, reflected the competitive demand for pork products from normal consumers, and lend-lease and military requirements.

Hogs, beef, veal and lamb are the "big four" of the American meat diet. Pork is by far the most important to the average consumer and, in 1940, hog sales accounted for nearly 10 per cent of the farmer's cash income.

ON STATE STREET

This is a delivery boy

This is a 10-ton truck

BOTH are useful to deliver things

If you were in the music business you wouldn't deliver a sheet of music with a 10-ton truck. You wouldn't expect the delivery boy to deliver a grand piano.

Newspaper advertising is like that. It delivers messages. The amount of space you use for your message depends on the kind of message you have to deliver—and there is newspaper advertising space for any kind of message.

The farmer with a cow for sale can get his message across in the classified columns.

The dry-goods merchant needs several columns of display space to show the many things he has to sell.

A big department store is really many stores in one. Each department really is a store. A department store may take as much as a whole section—many pages—of a newspaper to advertise its wares.

Thus, you see, the newspaper is a messenger that can do the job of the delivery boy or the 10-ton truck. It can deliver messages of any size from one line in the classified columns to many pages of display space.

Newspaper advertising is flexible—can be fitted to the needs of anyone with a message to deliver.

Messenger boys get tired

Ten-ton trucks wear out

But newspapers go on delivering their advertisers' messages, tirelessly, forcefully, day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year.

Thus newspapers can do more than make sure that their messages are delivered. By repetition they can make sure that their messages are read, remembered, accepted.

Cadets Face Cavaliers In Crucial Class B Battle Thursday

CADETS TOP SALEM CHINA FOR 17TH AS CAVS BEAT TRADES

Celtic - Fitzpatrick Game May Be Arranged, Says Joe Kelley

The red hot Cadets, present loop leaders of Class B, ran their victory string to 17 in a row last night as they trounced the Salem China five, 40-27, on the Memorial building court. Starting slowly, it took the Carroll clubbers the whole first half to get started but when they did the Chinas were no match for them. The Cadets led 5-3 at the end of the first quarter and 14-8 at the intermission.

With Johnny Hanzlick hitting the hoop with consistency from down under, the Cadets turned on the heat in the third quarter and in the last practically swept the Carroll clubbers the whole first half to get started but when they did the Chinas were no match for them. The Cadets led 5-3 at the end of the first quarter and 14-8 at the intermission.

The Cavaliers kept their streak intact also as they downed an undermanned Trades Class five, 53-34. The Cavs also started slowly but their fast-break kept picking up momentum and soon the Tradesmen, playing with only four men, were crushed. The winners led 11-9 at the quarter, 28-14 at the half and 44-21 at the end of the third quarter.

With Bob Buckman leading the way, the Tradesmen put on one last desperate spurt and tried gamely to close the gap separating the teams but the task was too much. The Cavs pulled a typical "Globe-trotter" stunt in the final minute of the game when Wayne "Zeke" Steffel made a two pointer while perched on the shoulders of Glenn "Wiggy" Weiland.

For the winners, it was "Wild Bill" Theiss who sparked in the box score with 17 points, all tallied from underneath the hoop, while Bob Buckman tossed in 15 to lead the Trades Class.

The Cavs and Cadets, both undefeated in second round play, will clash in a crucial battle Thursday night at 7:30. The cadets won the first round game when they got a few breaks in the last quarter after trailing almost the whole course of the fray. The Carroll club has not been defeated this season while the Cavs dropped their first two games of the initial round of competition but have not been defeated since then. The second round championship hinges on this meeting.

Joe Kelley, city recreation director, also announced that a game between the Salem Celtics and the undefeated Fitzpatrick's five of the Class A may be arranged sometime in the near future. The Celtics, a recently organized quintet, issued a challenge to the Class A leaders some time ago.

HOLCOMB NEW GRID COACH AT MIAMI U.

ORFORD, March 10.—Stuart Holcomb, 32-year-old football and track coach at Washington & Jefferson college, Washington, Pa., today was appointed head football coach at Miami (O.) university.

Holcomb's appointment was announced by Merlin A. Dittmer, director of intercollegiate athletics, and ended a three-month search for a successor to Frank Wilton, whose resignation becomes effective in June.

Holcomb, captain of the 1931 Ohio State university football team, coached football at Findlay college and Muskingum college before going to Washington & Jefferson last season.

He will come here next Tuesday to direct spring football practice and select an assistant within 24 hours, Dittmer said.

UPSETS FLOOR BIG NAME LINKSMEN IN 4-BALL TOURNAY

Giant Killers, Previous Winners Remain As Rest Lose Out

(By Associated Press)
MIAMI, Fla., March 10.—The trickiest golf of all—best ball competition—robbed the Miami Biltmore's four ball tournament of its gallery-getters before the semi-finals were reached today.

Promoters were moaning over the startling upsets which bounced most of the big name players to the sidelines and left in the running only last year's winners and three sets of giant-killers.

In a tournament where every player bangs away at the cup, and courageous putters come to the fore, victims included Sammy Snead and Ralph Guldahl, Craig Wood and Billy Burke, Jimmy Demaret and Lawson Little, Clayton Heafner and Lloyd Mangrum, Byron Nelson and Henry Picard, Jimmy Tomson and Harry Cooper, Horton Smith and Paul Runyan.

Long putts decided the matches and they were dropping for the outsiders, and not the established stars.

In four ball golf, players gamble. They shoot boldly for the pin, secure in the knowledge that their partner will backstop them with a saving par. There is no necessity to stroke cautiously, as players must do when they want to be sure of the second putt if they miss the first.

The deluge of low-scoring here—13 eagles and 195 birdies in the first two rounds—resulted from teamwork.

Fighting it out for the jackpot was the team of Chandler Harper and Herman Keiser. Their opponents today were the 1941 winners—Ben Hogan and Gene Sarazen. In the other match Jack Grout and Ben Loving were paired against Jimmy Hines and Willie Goggin.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, March 10.—The Metropolitan basketball tournament, competing for talent with the N. C. A. A., may not get the best college teams here, but it's doing right well with colorful individuals.

Already lined up are Rhode Island's Stutz Modzelewski, who has scored 1,714 points in four seasons; Price Brookfield of West Texas, with 1,649; and Bob Gerber, who rang up 467 for Toledo this year. We'd like to see that Tucker boy from Oklahoma and Comedian Bones McKinney of North Carolina State added to the list.

Trainer John Gaver says he had no idea of entering The Rhyme in the Widener handicap until he learned Eddie Arcaro was free, then he decided to take a "shot at the moon." The Japanese submarine that shelled the California coast recently, fired Head Coach Stanley Williamson of Santa Barbara Junior college right into the navy. The school decided to drop all athletics so Stanley got a commission in the naval reserve. Father Flanagan reports that every one of his Boys' Town kids plans to register to play baseball March 30 when the National Semi-pro Baseball congress holds its national registration day. John P. Carmichael, Chicago Daily News: "Joe Louis knocks out Abe Simon." Lem Franklin knocks out Simon. Bob Pastor, who lost twice to Louis, knocks out Franklin. So Louis and Simon fight again for the championship. "Try that on your baby grand!"

Handley's Career Over
SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.—The possibility that Lee Handley's major league baseball career may be over is a break for Pittsburgh Rookie Eddie Lepp, second baseman last year with Albany. Handley was slated for return to the minors until it developed that Handley was unable to throw a ball across the diamond following an automobile accident last winter. He has been sent to Los Angeles for an examination.

TRADE WINDS BLOW AROUND CAMPS OF A. L. BALL TEAMS

Conference Between Tiger, Senator Moguls May Result In Deal

(By Associated Press)
ORLANDO, Fla., March 10.—Trade winds fanned hot and cold around the camp of the Washington Senators today with the Detroit Tigers still hoping to promote a deal that would get some of their problem children off their hands.

President Clark Griffith of the Senators said emphatically that he would not agree to give up his promising young first baseman, Jim (Mickey) Vernon, and veteran Pitcher Emil (Dutch) Leonard for Detroit's Louis (Buck) Newsom and Rudy York. It was announced here last night that Leonard had ended his holdout by signing a 1942 Senator contract.

Can Change His Mind
But the "Old Fox" never has been hesitant about changing his mind and a little shuffling of some other aspects of the deal, like throwing in an extra player or a considerable cash consideration, might easily sway the transaction.

There also was talk today that the Senators might have something in common with the Yankees, who would find either Vernon or Leonard useful, and besides they have become impatient with their holdout third baseman, Red Rolfe.

Washington would like to have Rolfe and also definitely is interested in Mike Chartak, the rookie outfielder of the Yanks.

Griffith and Manager "Bucky" Harris say they won't give up Vernon, who batted .239 last year.

Couple Of Headaches
York would give the Senators much-needed righthanded batting power and Newsom might conceivably win as many games next season as Leonard. They are a couple of temperamental headaches for any manager and because of their prolonged resistance to salary slashes, the Tigers are making secret of their efforts to put through a trade. Detroit also has placed Catcher Billy Sullivan, another one of five holdouts, on the block.

General Manager Jack Zeller of the Tigers conferred with Griffith here yesterday and there were indications that they would continue their negotiations.

Detroit's general manager indicated that if the holdout hurler doesn't show up in camp soon and come to terms, his name probably will go on the next waiver list.

Vital Statistics On Quakers' Past Basketball Season

Playing one of their longest schedules in recent years, Coach Herb Brown's Salem eagles compiled a record of 14 wins and six losses and scored 701 points while holding their opponents to 610. Ray "Goose" McGaffick paced the squad of 1941-42 in the box scores with 162 points garnered in 18 games while Ed Sal Guappone and Sam Pridon were close behind with 154 and 137, respectively.

The Quakers' offensive average per game was 35.1 while their defensive average was 30.5, one of the lowest in the district. They suffered their worst defeat of the season at the hands of an East Liverpool quintet which is at present involved in district tourney play. They played their best ball of the campaign against the Youngstown Rayen five which they defeated in the last few seconds, 36-35.

A protest availed the Rayen crew exulting nothing when they claimed that the clock had been stopped in the last minute or so of the game giving the Quakers an opportunity to score a bucket.

Johnny Volio, rough and tumble guard, garnered the best percentage in foul shooting as he dropped 18 of 25 free throws through the meshes for a 72 per cent mark. The team as a whole had a mark of 54.3 per cent.

The Quakers enjoyed their greatest scoring spree against Youngstown South, one of the remaining teams in the sectional tourney, when they mired the half century mark by one point. McGaffick scored 16 points in this tilt to share high honors, in this respect, with Sam Pridon who tipped in the same number against Youngstown Chaney. Pridon, a senior, played but one year of High school basketball. He was taken on to fill the position left vacant by Phil Cozad whose career was interrupted by a leg injury.

The varsity squad will graduate in June, leaving Coach Herb Brown with no seasoned veterans for next year's quintet. Eight boys, McGaffick, Pridon, Guappone, Scullion, Volio, Cozad, Capel and Ruffing will finish school this spring. Only Ed Fisher, Larry Frost and Dick Culbertson will be back next year and they did not receive too much varsity competition. The remaining positions will be filled by members of this year's reserve team which completed a very successful season. The reserve squad will be replenished from a stellar frosh squad which also enjoyed a good year.

Nats Top Yanks, 9-2
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — The New York Yankees broke a tradition of 20 years standing in meeting a member of the American league in a spring exhibition contest yesterday. Now they wish they hadn't. Washington won, 9 to 2.

Furnace Golf Loop Plans New Season

To consider plans for the coming season, members of the Golf League of the Electric Furnace Co. had a dinner meeting at Schell's dining room last night. Officers were elected and plans for the system and place for play were considered.

Curtis Vaughn was elected president; James Burrell, vice president; Robert Stuffer, secretary; Paul Woodruff, treasurer. Last year's officers included President Ned Massa, Vice President William E. Miller, secretary-treasurer, John Holzwarth.

Committees appointed last night are: Place of play and transportation—Ned Massa, Robert Hiltbrand and James Burrell.

System of play and rules—Paul Woodruff, John Holzwarth and Ned Massa.

The next meeting of the league will be held March 23.

HEATH DEMANDS BIG INCREASE IN WAGES

CLEVELAND, March 10.—Half of the Cleveland Indians' holdout list—Jeff Heath—is asking more money than President Alva Bradley is willing to talk about.

Heath, who was the Tribe's leading batter last season and won the 1941 most valuable player award of the Cleveland baseball writers, went into a huddle with Bradley for three hours yesterday but nothing came of the meeting.

Gerald Walker, Cleveland's only other holdout, is still at his home in Orlando, Fla., so far as Bradley has heard.

The club president said Heath was asking about 50 per cent more than the club's offer, which is believed to be about $12,000.

Heath kept quiet as to the details, but Bradley said "we got nowhere. Jeff thinks this is going to be a big year for baseball and his mind made up to cash in on it. I hope he's right, but I'm afraid we're too far apart even to negotiate our differences."

HEIDELBERG TEAM IS SECOND IN MEET

Ivan Immel of Hanoverton was a member of the Heidelberg college debate team which took second place in the annual Ohio conference state tournament held Friday and Saturday at Capital university, Columbus.

The tournament saw the unusual spectacle of an Indiana school, Earlham, winning the Ohio state championship. Earlham, whose campus is just across the state line, is the only out-of-state member of the conference. Heidelberg, however, topped all of the 18 Ohio colleges represented.

Immel, paired with Paul Bock, Archbold, O., sophomore, defeated Denison, DeSales, U. of Cincinnati, and Bowling Green, while losing to Capital and Earlham. He took the negative on the proposition of government regulation of labor unions.

F.D.R. WARNS OF INFLATION

Renewed Effort to head Off Farm Bloc Price Drive Is Indicated

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Administration leaders in the house pointed today to a sober warning by President Roosevelt against inflation and profiteering as one good reason why the farm bloc should agree to abandon farm price restrictions in an agricultural appropriation bill.

The President, in broadcasting a message last night on the ninth anniversary of the national farm program, made no direct reference to the current effort of farm state legislators to bar the sale of government-held farm surpluses at sub-parity prices.

"But if all prices keep on going up," he emphasized, "we shall have inflation of a very dangerous kind—we shall have such a steep rise in prices and the cost of living that the entire nation will be hurt."

Would Hamper Victory Drive
"That would greatly increase the cost of the war and the national debt, hamper the drive for victory, and inevitably plunge everyone—city workers and farmers alike—into ruinous deflation later on."

Mr. Roosevelt has been outspoken in his objections to the surplus-at-parity restriction demanded by the farm bloc. He declared recently that such a concession would raise the nation's eating bill by a billion dollars a year. His leader on the house floor, Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, announced he would try to eliminate the restriction tomorrow, when debate on the bill will be resumed.

The fight against inflation, the chief executive declared in his broadcast, is as vital as any fought with bullets and bombs.

"It calls," he said, "for cooperation and restraint on the part of every group."

He said that 90 per cent of the population was cooperating.

Early in the address he denied with emphasis that the American people are complacent or apathetic. "If there is one single thing of which I am certain," he said, "it is that the American people are not now, and have not been, complacent."

Committed To Action

On the contrary, he said, Americans are "wholeheartedly and entirely committed to action." There are "hard, trying, difficult days" ahead, he concluded, but "how hard and how bitter they will be depends on how well we can keep our eyes, our thoughts, and our efforts directed toward the only thing that matters now for every one of us in the United Nations—winning the war."

Vice President Wallace and Secretary of Agriculture Wickard spoke on the same program. Both lauded the ever-normal granary plan, undertaken early in the Roosevelt administration. Wallace said farmers should do everything possible to keep the farm program in good repute, and lean over backward to avoid "undue pressure on the nation in time of trouble."

In considering the agricultural appropriation bill yesterday, the house tentatively put a $1,000 ceiling on individual soil conservation payments but declined to authorize deduction of soil conservation payments in computing parity payments.

The lawmakers adopted an amendment permitting below-parity sales of commodities which, however, did not lessen Floor Leader McCormack's opposition to the general parity-guarantee ban written into the bill by the agriculture committee.

The general staff to a fifth of its former size and gave greater recognition to air force men. Excepting the chief of staff, General George C. Marshall, who is 61, the streamlined staff has an average age of 48.

However, congress was urged by Senator La Follette (Prog-Wis) to order an investigation to determine whether legislation was needed to produce closer coordination of army, navy and air corps.

Seek Greater Co-ordination

Senator Austin (R-Vt) felt that greater coordination was needed, and Senator Hill (D-Ala.), while crediting the army with much progress, said he hoped for the ultimate creation of an "over-all staff" to unify the armed services into "one great machine."

The navy changes were considered a necessary preliminary to any such strategy board, for it ended the division of authority that existed between King and Stark and put King in absolute charge under President Roosevelt and Secretary Knox.

Stark's new post, it was said, will be comparable to that held by Admiral William S. Sims, World War commander of U. S. naval forces overseas. For the present, however, Vice Admiral Royal E. Ingersoll will continue as commander of the Atlantic fleet, King's old command.

In London, Stark will succeed Vice Admiral Robert L. Ghormley, who has been on duty in England as a special naval observer since August, 1940.

A special staff was set up in the navy department to administer the duties which King took over from Stark, and this staff, like General Marshall's streamlined counterpart, will share responsibility in mapping the horror of the civilized world at the time of the Nanking massacre of 1937," Eden continued.

He referred to the Japanese capture of the former Chinese capital on Dec. 13, 1937.

Substantiated accounts at that time said a reign of terror existed for days, with thousands of women raped and murdered and other thousands of the inhabitants killed during the burning, looting and pillage of Nanking.

Japanese statements at the time described the disorders as a "mopping up" operation.

Interview Refused

"The Japanese guards are utterly callous and repeated requests by General Maltby (Maj. Gen. C. M. Maltby, British commander at Hong Kong) for an interview with the Japanese commander have been refused," he added. "This means presumably that the Japanese high command have connived at the conduct of their forces."

The Japanese actions, he said, apparently would not bear independent investigation as permission was refused for a representative of the Red Cross to go there.

"Two things are clear—to the house, the country and the world—first that the Japanese claim that they are animated by lofty chivalry is nauseating hypocrisy," he said.

"Second, the enemy must be utterly defeated and we can best express our sympathy with the victims of these appalling outrages by redoubling our efforts to insure his utter and overwhelming defeat."

FOOD STAMPS GAIN DURING FEBRUARY

LISBON, March 10.—During February, there was an increase in the food stamp business conducted by the county for various welfare and relief recipients. The greater number of food stamps was given out under the direct relief program, when $6,054 worth were issued in 492 cases representing 1,320 persons. rationing of foodstuffs, but there has been enforced reduction in consumption of such items as tea, tinned foods and imported condiments.

Paper is becoming scarcer every day, with the result that customers now must carry home all but perishable goods without wrapping.

Newspapers, which depended chiefly on Canada for their supplies of newsprint, have been reduced in size and face further reductions. This has brought with it an enforced rationing of advertising space.

Gasoline has been rationed for some time on a sliding scale based on horse power. Although private motorists still get a small allowance, even this may be cut off soon.

In the vast, thinly-populated regions of northern Australia—where the Japanese would be most likely to launch their invasion thrust from a once-protected island barrier—all persons except those engaged in military defense have been removed. The actual numbers evacuated from Darwin and other coastal points have not been disclosed.

Many evacuees from these areas have arrived in Sydney, Melbourne and the other principal cities. However, still others have settled at least temporarily in inland towns and country districts.

In Canberra, seat of the government, an all-party parliamentary committee appointed to examine the government's national economic policy has reached agreement on all but one point—a four per cent limitation on profits which, the committee decided, should not become operative until July 1 and must be submitted for the approval of both houses.

The reservation was made by former Army Minister Percy Spender, of the United Australia party, who said the opposition must not be regarded as committee itself to approval of the limitation principle.

The prohibition would apply to any property not held by the would-be vendor for 12 months, while permitting the continued sales and transfers of real estate which the seller has held for longer periods.

An existing agreement that all companies set aside enough profits to pay in taxation all profits above four per cent remains, but does not become operative until July 1 or a later date which may be set by parliament. The effect of this will be to enable companies to pay full dividends for the fiscal year ending June 30.

The four per cent limitation is incorporated with other tax legislation now being framed to which a senate majority is opposed. But since it cannot amend the taxation measure, this group could not eliminate the limitation on profits without throwing out the whole bill and thus challenging the entire financial policy of the government.

Committee representatives are of the belief the senate opposition would not risk an election at this time by throwing out an important financial measure.
